

Your Big Day

"New Normal" Suggestions and Tips for you and your guests on your Wedding Day

- We recommend moving your ceremony time earlier to 12 noon (church) if possible OR 1pm (Hotel Wedding) -allow time for travel to reception, due to finishing earlier at 11.30pm
- Be mindful that there will not be a handshake line but your guests still may want to get a photo and congratulate you at a distance.
- Guests must wear face coverings at the hotel which can only be removed when eating and drinking (while seated).
- Please ask and remind your guests to use sanitiser and to regularly sanitise while in the hotel. Sanitation units are provided throughout the property and are at all tables.
- Arrival reception- All food and beverages organised for the arrivals reception will be individually prepared and served to your guests. Buffet style or tray service for the arrivals reception will not be available due to restrictions.
- Consider cutting your cake at the arrivals reception and consider running your speeches at this stage also.
- At dinner it is recommend that all guests stay seated at their table and avoid where possible intermingling with other guests at other tables.
- Paper sachets of salt & pepper and sugar will be on the table. Bread will be served to each guest individually.
- There will be no family style service, instead you and your guests will be provided with silver service.
- When building your table plan the maximum number of guests at a table is 6 persons and from no more than 3 households. Grids and layouts of your reserved suite will be provided to you by the hotel.
- All beverages (alcohol and non-alcohol) are available to purchase, however only with tray service.
- Dancing is permitted, please be mindful of social distancing. Guests must wear face coverings on the dance floor.
- Evening Reception-food service will be similar to the arrival reception where by it will be served individually to each guest.
- All entertainment and bar service will conclude at 11pm.
- Non-residents must vacate hotel property by 11.30pm and residents must vacate all public areas by 11.30pm.
- The maximum number of guests permitted at your wedding is 50 excluding hotel personnel and any external suppliers, i.e.: Band, DJ, sweet cart, etc..
- We hope these tips will help with planning your special day, let us know if we can be of any assistance.
